

Meet the 2011 USDF Youth Convention Scholarship Winners!

Catherine Chamberlain

Catherine is seventeen years old and lives in Chandler, Arizona. Catherine is the Youth Chairman of the Arizona Dressage Association's Board of Directors and is a competitive FEI Young Rider. She has represented Region 5 for the past three years at the FEI North American Junior & Young Rider Championships. Catherine is an honor roll student and enjoys organizing fundraisers and educational activities for her local dressage riders.

Courtney Dale

Courtney is nineteen years old and lives in Eagle, Idaho. She is an active member of the Idaho Dressage and Eventing Association and is schooling Fourth Level. Courtney is a full time student at Boise State University, pursuing a degree in Pharmacology. Despite having a full schedule with school and riding; Courtney finds time to volunteer for Ride for Joy, a therapeutic riding program; Snow Ponies, a riding program for disadvantaged children, and the local Veteran's Administration Hospital.

Jessica Foschi

Jessica is twenty years old and lives in Virginia, Minnesota. Jessica competes at Third Level and is an active member of the North Woods Dressage Association and the Central States Dressage and Eventing Association. Jessica has audited several clinics and volunteers her time to her local dressage competitions and educational events. She is a USDF Bronze Medalist and has competed in the USEF National Dressage Seat Medal Finals. Jessica is a working student at a dressage facility in Iron, Minnesota and also attends the University of Minnesota Duluth where she studies Communication and Political Science.

Jessica Hainsworth

Jessica is fifteen years old and lives in Mt. Morris, New York. She is an active member of the Western New York Dressage Association and the Genesee Valley Pony Club where she regularly devotes her time to teaching dressage clinics and riding camps. Jessica is a USDF Bronze Medalist and is preparing to qualify for NAJYRC as an FEI Junior in 2012. Jessica is a National Junior Honor Society student and is a member of her varsity girls' basketball team.

